National Missing Children's Day Awards

Each year in May, in observance of National Missing Children's Day, the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ), through its Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP), hosts a ceremony to recognize the extraordinary efforts of individuals, organizations, and agencies that have made a significant contribution to protecting children during the prior calendar year. In 2019, OJJDP will make the following awards:

- Missing Children's Law Enforcement Award
- Missing Children's Citizen Award
- Missing Children's Child Protection Award
- Attorney General's Special Commendation

Processing of the awards is as follows:

- All nominations must be submitted by January 23, 2019. Late or incomplete applications will not be accepted. Nominations will be acknowledged upon submission.
- OJJDP will identify a panel of peers to review the nominations.
- The review panel will rank the nominees and provide their scores to OJJDP for review.
- OJJDP reserves the right not to make an award for any reason.
- Nominees are subject to a formal background check and final approval by OJJDP.
- Award winners will be notified by OJJDP, and the names will be announced by OJJDP in or around April 2019.
- OJJDP will send a formal announcement of the winners to all persons who made a nomination. It will be the responsibility of the nominators to notify their respective nominee, if he/she was not selected.
- The awards will be presented in Washington, DC, at the National Missing Children's Day Ceremony, which will be held on May 22, 2019.

Please direct all questions to the National Criminal Justice Training Center of Fox Valley Technical College at 877-798-7682 or mc.day@fvtc.edu.

Missing Children's Law Enforcement Award

Guidelines

The award is intended to recognize the extraordinary efforts of an active duty law enforcement officer or officers who has made a significant investigative or program contribution to the safety of children. If the nomination contains more than one nominee, please clearly indicate who will accept the award on behalf of the team. Only one individual is permitted to accept the award.

- Nominations will not be accepted from relatives or friends; nor will self-nominations be accepted.
- The exemplary actions of the individual(s) nominated for the award must have taken place in 2018.
- Nominees must be United States citizens.
- Incomplete applications will not be accepted.
- Nominees are subject to formal background check and final approval by OJJDP.
- All submitted materials become the property of OJJDP.

Nominee Criteria

- All nominees must be active members of the law enforcement community.
- All nominees must meet at least one of the following criteria:
 1. Were actively involved in an investigation leading to the recovery of missing or abducted child or children.
 2. Developed a program, policy, or guidelines that significantly improved the safety of children.
 3. Made a significant impact on missing or abducted children's issues or programs at the department, county, regional, state, or national level.

Nomination

Complete the online nomination form, including a description of the action or contribution of the nominee(s) in 500 words or fewer. If more than one individual is being nominated, please submit contact information for all individuals and describe each person's role. Only one individual will be permitted to accept the award on behalf of the team, so please clearly indicate who will accept the award.

Contribution Summary

The summary must describe in detail the nominee's contribution, which may involve either an extraordinary investigation or a significant program contribution. Where possible, list the outcomes of the activity—number of arrests, number of children rescued/impacted, state/local impact, charges filed, trial outcome, if available, etc. The description should include all relevant participating agencies, including any federal entities. The nominator may include links to additional materials (e.g., newspaper articles, press releases, awards, letters of support, etc.) within the application.
