

Building Community Engagement in your Grant

Grant-Funded Tribal Justice System Efforts

Welcome

Stephanie Autumn, Director

Tribal Youth Resource Center

Tribal Law and Policy Institute

8235 Santa Monica Blvd., Suite 211

West Hollywood, CA 90046

(651) 291 2972 (Office)

(507) 217-7903 (Cell)

Email: Stephanie@tlpi.org

Visit: www.TribalYouth.org

Lea Geurts, Project Coordinator

National Criminal Justice Training
Center of Fox Valley Technical College

1825 N. Bluemound Drive

Appleton, WI 54914

(920) 740-5218 – Office

(920) 831-5400 – Fax

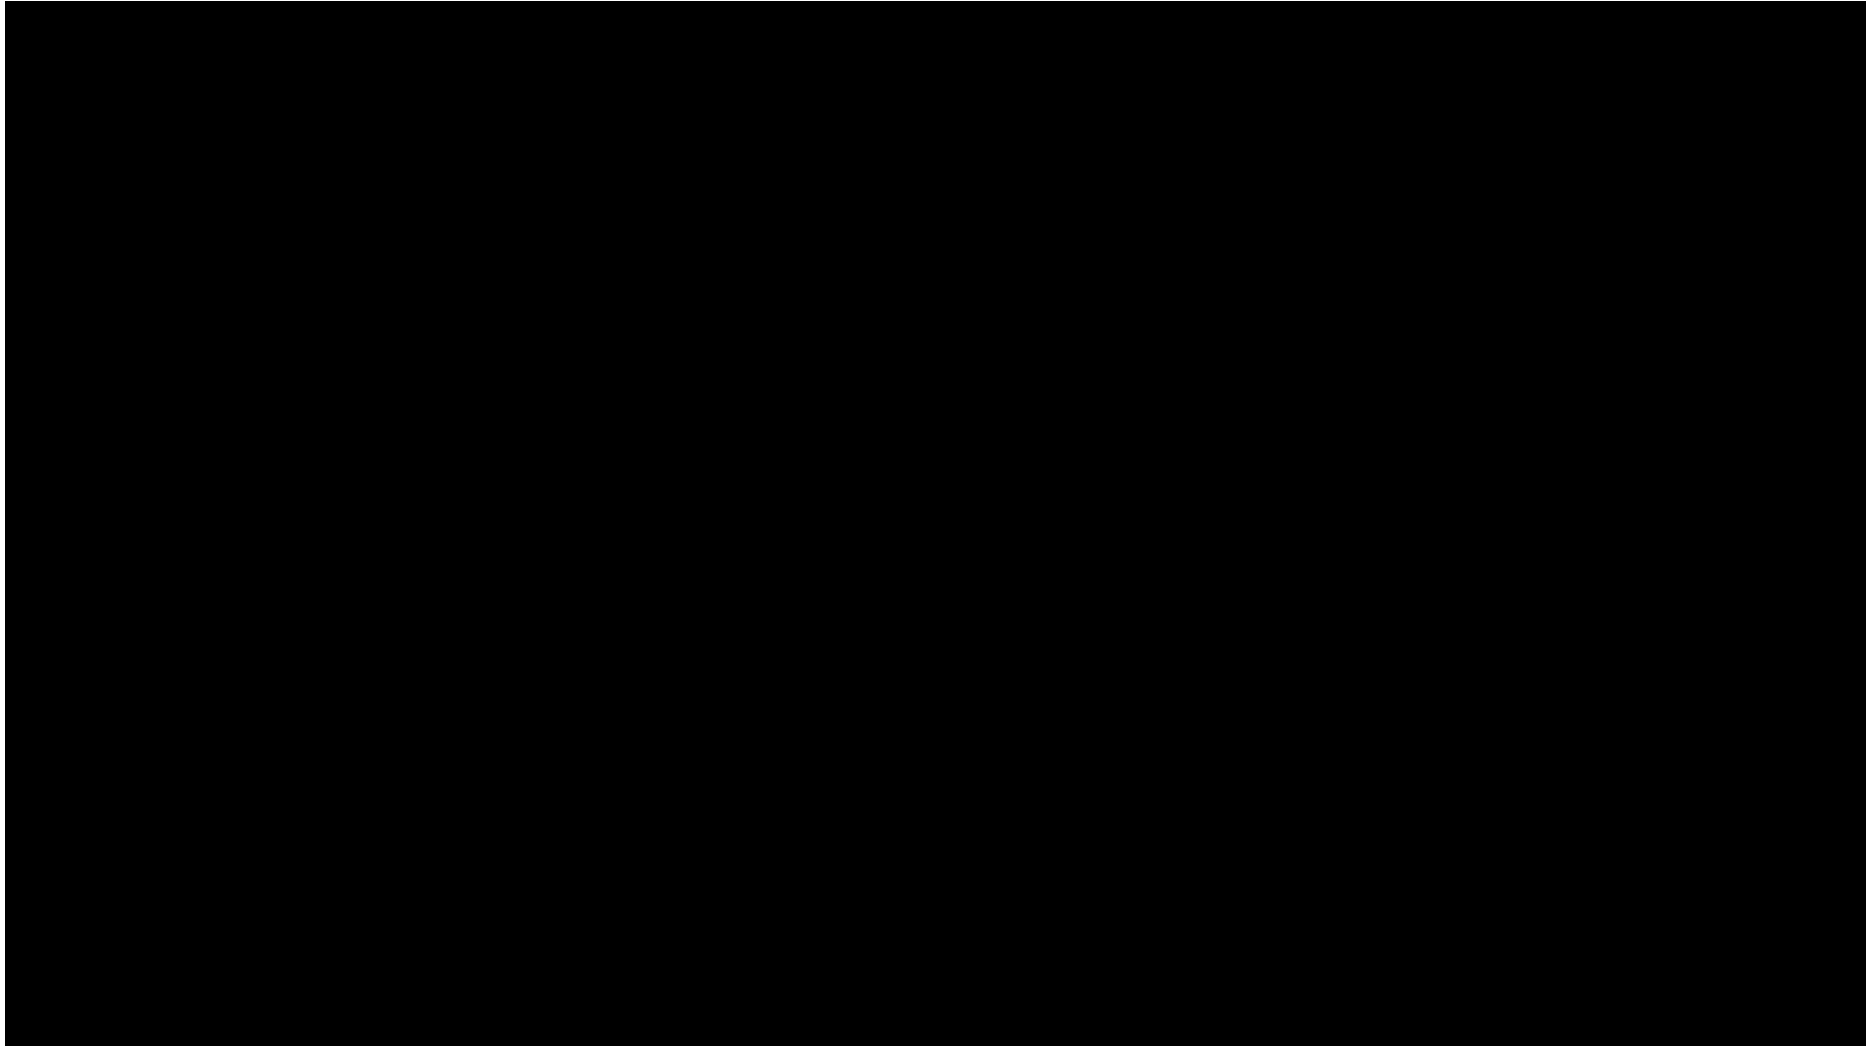

Email: geurtsl@fvtc.edu

Visit: www.ncjtc.org

Community Engagement Word Cloud

Effective Collaboration

Scaffolding Community Capacity

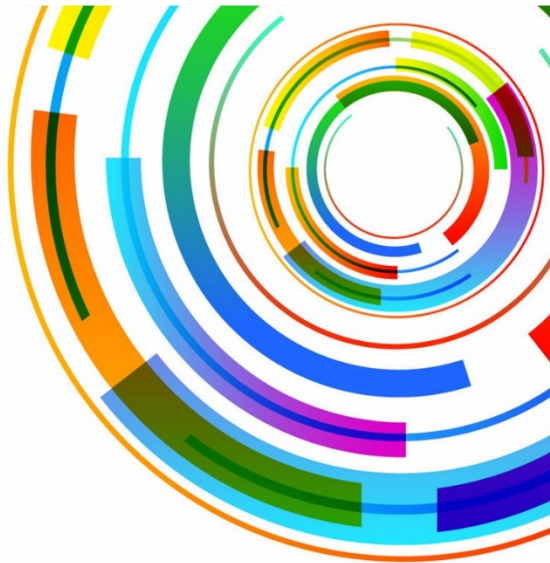

- Children, Youth, Adults
- Parents/Caregivers
- Elders
- Community Leaders
- Tribal Government
- Tribal Programs

- In Person Conversations
- Flyers/Posters
- Phone & Email Outreach
- Community Meetings
- Tribal Webpage, Facebook, & Other Social Media
- Tribal Council Meetings

Scaffolding Community Capacity

Formulating Community Advisory Boards/Circles for your CTAS funded program

- Tribal program representation with mutual vested interests
- Inclusion of “those most impacted”
- Providing pro active engagement opportunities
- Leveraging cultural values/lifeways and resources to change the narrative
- Resource Mapping

Intertribal Collaborations

- Promotion of common interests
- Enhancement of independent & interdependent tribal infrastructures/systems
- Consultation on state and federal policies/legislation
- Develop joint strategies to advance the health, safety, and welfare of Native people in the state and region
- Maximizing resources to increase effectiveness and duration of state and federally funded programs
- Changing the narrative through public relation and education campaigns with non- Native communities and systems

Tribal - City/County Partnerships

Tribal - City/County Partnerships

Fostering Relationships

- Identify common/shared goals
- Set clear expectations
- Listen to understand
- Open lines of communication
- Trust

Sustaining the Partnership

- Solidify agreements
- Create a record
- Open the circle
- Maintain contact
- Update/review agreement

State Partnerships

- State & Tribal Governance
- Judicial
- Law Enforcement
- Community Corrections & Detention
- Probation & Reentry
- Child Welfare
- Other

Tribal - Federal Partnerships

Tribal-Federal Collaborations Resources

- The U.S. Departments of Justice (DOJ) and Interior (DOI) has released the congressionally-mandated Long Term Plan to Build and Enhance Tribal Justice Systems (Tribal Justice Plan), which responds to sections 211, 241, and 244 of the Tribal Law and Order Act. Long Term Plan to Build and Enhance Tribal Justice Systems
- The National Congress of American Indians hosts a Tribal Law and Order Act page: <http://tloa.ncai.org/>
- The American Indian Development Associates has developed a guide for consultation with American Indian Tribes: http://aidainc.net/Publications/tribal_consultation.htm
- Improving the Relationship between the Federal Government, State Government and Tribes <http://www.tribal-institute.org/articles/mou.htm>
- A Federal Commitment to Tribal Justice Systems by Janet Reno: <http://www.tribal-institute.org/articles/reno.htm>

The Honor of One is the Honor of All

