

Office for Victims of Crime (OVC) Mission

OVC is committed to enhancing the Nation's capacity to assist crime victims and to providing leadership in changing policies and practices to promote justice and healing for all victims of crime.

OVC Programs Support:

- Victims in tribal communities
- State victim compensation and assistance programs
- Training, technical assistance, and information resources
- Victims of terrorism and mass violence (home and abroad)
- Coordination with federal agencies' provision of victim services
- Victims of human trafficking
- National-scope demonstration and service projects

For More Information:

For more info, please visit: www.ovc.gov

Or email: TribalSetAside@ojp.usdoj.gov