Comprehensive Approach to Offender Management

How do we do what we do?

Origin of Comprehensive Approach

Goal: Prevent future victimization

- Multidisciplinary team approach
- Specialized training
- Outcome evaluation drives program modification

Center for Sex Offender Management, 2002

POLL

What level of collaboration is there between offender management and victim services?

- We are aware of each other's programs but do not work together.
- We work together on certain cases but don't consistently collaborate.
- We coordinate all offender management and victim services.
- We don't know what each other does.

Comprehensive Approach

Exists on two “levels” and addresses three questions:

The Fundamental Principles

How should we do this work? / The Core Components

What should be done in order to manage offenders effectively?

Who should be involved?

Comprehensive Approach Fundamental Principles

Carter, Bumby, and Talbot, 2004 CSOM Comprehensive Approach Publication

Victim Centeredness

“What is in the best interest for the safety of the victim and the public?”

Public Education

Proactive in our efforts to educate our communities

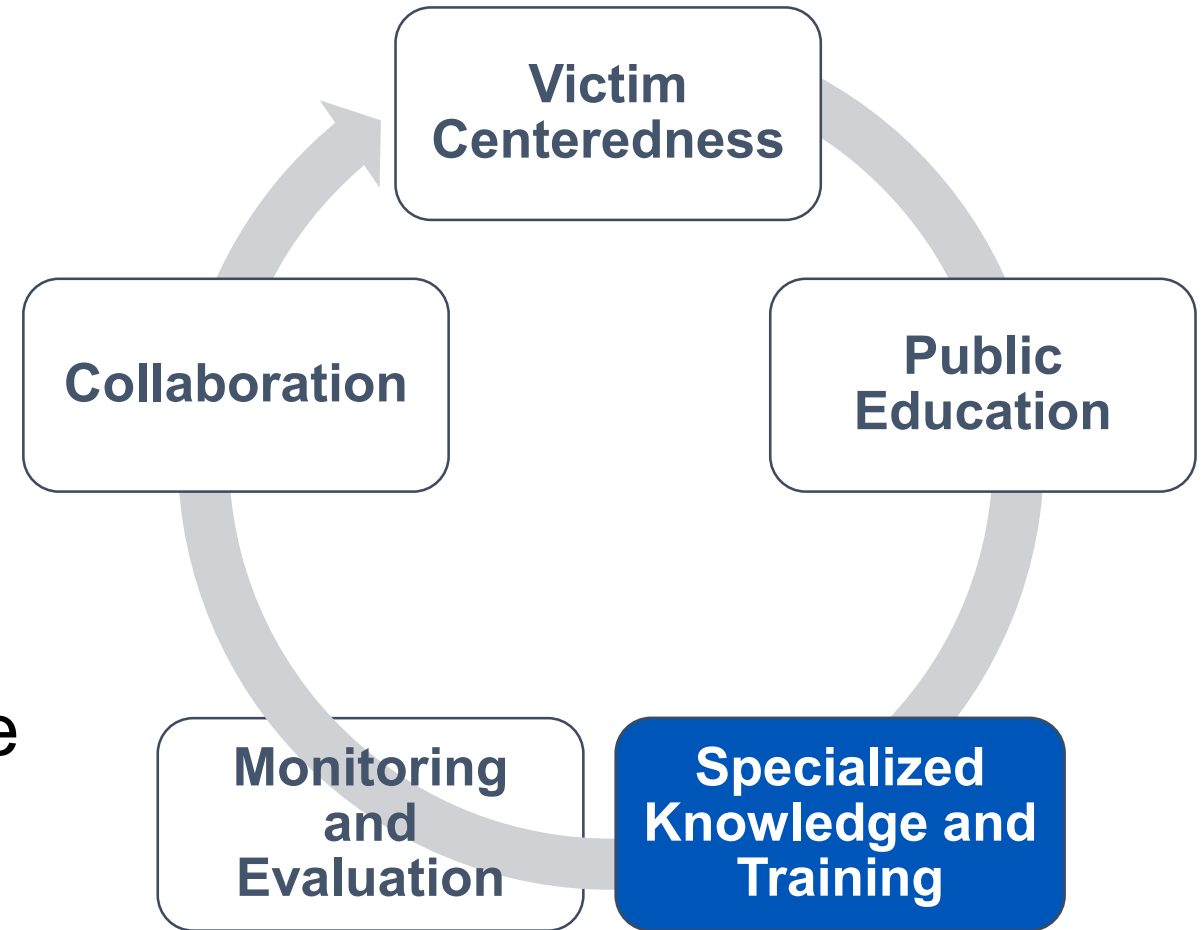

Empower them to be part of the solution

Specialized Knowledge & Training

Includes all who work with offenders

Develop a specialized knowledge base to work effectively

Monitoring and Evaluation

Seek and incorporate new knowledge into policies and practices

Monitor the effectiveness and impact of our efforts

“How can we improve what we are doing?”

Collaboration

The work must be done collaboratively

It cannot be done alone

Core Components Level

What should be done in order to manage offenders effectively?

Who should be involved?

POLL

What aspects of the comprehensive approach do you have in place?

- Victim Centeredness
- Public Education
- Specialized knowledge and training
- Monitoring and evaluation
- Collaboration

Summary

- »» No single component – in and of itself – is a sufficient strategy
- »» Collective work and expertise is critical
- »» Work must be integrated and collaborative
- »» What we do is just as important as how we do it
