

Worksheet to Secure Community Support for the Development of a Coordinated Community Response Team

A Coordinated Community Response (CCR) is a multi agency collaboration consisting of those individuals who respond to domestic violence incidents within a tribal community, who coordinate and collaborate to develop and implement policies and practices in order to establish culturally appropriate, victim centered responses and ensure batterer accountability. Each agency represented on the CCR team plays a vital role to ensure a consistent response from advocacy, law enforcement, judges, prosecutors and probation officers.

WHY IS THIS PLAN IMPORTANT?

---

- Important for community stakeholders to know how this may impact them
- Gives the opportunity to provide input, support, and sustainability
- It may help your community address the challenges faced by Native victims
- Creates a victim centered response with victim safety has high priority
- There are many benefits of a CCR:
  - Protocols for information sharing, confidentiality policies, roles and responsibilities, and developing victim centered responses
  - Interagency cooperation
  - Cross jurisdiction cooperation
  - Training for responders
  - Increase victim trust in criminal justice system
  - Shared focus of offender accountability
  - Community education and awareness – prevention opportunities for the community

HOW DO YOU ESTABLISH THIS SUPPORT?

---

- Branding and marketing
- Sharing at events and with the community
- Visiting with community members
- Meeting with community leaders to share with their programs

WHO DO YOU TARGET?

---

- Entire community, at all levels
- Start with Tribal Leaders
- Grassroots
- Youth community members
- Service providers within the community
- Law enforcement
  - Dispatcher
  - Jail
  - Tribal
  - Local
  - B.I.A.
- Advocacy
- Probation
- Courts, civil and criminal
- Prosecution
- Batterer programs

---

WHO WILL DO OUTREACH?

---

- CCR team members
- Service providers and responders
- Volunteers
- Interns

---

WHAT RESOURCES WILL YOU NEED?

---

- People
- Time
- Venues
- Materials, such as flyers and fact sheets
- Radio or other media public service announcements