

Excited Delirium Webinar

September 29, 2020

Video Resources*

*Some videos may contain graphic language and images.

Jefferson Street (9:31)

Available to be viewed uninterrupted as detailed in the webinar. The subject in the video was cited for possession of a controlled substance; psilocybin mushrooms, which he had obtained via the mail.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gHXU1GDkPbg>

Barbershop Excited Delirium (ED) video (1:56)

This incident was part of a 90's era COPS TV show, or similar, and was recorded in Philadelphia. The man in question was pounding on the door of apartments upstairs from the barbershop. He was naked and talking incoherently. One of the apartment dwellers shot the man out of fear and the man proceeds back downstairs into the barbershop. He had been shot in the abdomen, though you would not know that from his behavior.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=k8eyWHf1y50&has_verified=1

Riverside Cemetery (7:43)

This incident occurred just after 2 PM on May 29, 2013, at a cemetery in Appleton, WI. The subject was taken into custody without the use of force and transported by emergency medical services. He was later charged with possession of controlled substances for having K2 in his possession.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Kxyzu1DdKm8&t=37s>

Northland Avenue (4:23)

This incident occurred after 10 PM in Appleton, WI. on June 6, 2013. The subject was acting bizarre, running around in traffic on the local highway. Officers were able to contain him and with the use of an electronic control device and able to take him into custody and turn him over to EMS. It is not recalled what triggered the ED.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zR5RTNDwd_c