Moving Forward Together

Celebrating National Native American Heritage Month

November is National Native American Heritage Month. As the month comes to a close, we continue to celebrate the rich and diverse cultures, traditions, and histories of Native Americans as well as acknowledge the important contributions of Native people. We are proud to serve Tribal community leaders and criminal justice practitioners by helping them build strong justice systems and address unique and complex community and public safety challenges.

Take a look at the training opportunities we offer at ncjtc.org/tribal.

- ✓ Since 2010, we continue to be the DOJ's primary provider of all Coordinated Tribal Assistance Solicitation (CTAS) related assistance.
- ✓ We've been passionately supporting the sovereignty of Tribal nations since 1993.
- ✓ 300 out of 574 nationally recognized tribes received training through our Tribal Probation Academy!

Upcoming Tribal Probation Reentry Academy

We hold ONE Tribal Probation and Reentry Academy each year, with registration for the 2025 Academy opening up in late November-early December. Be sure to subscribe to our email list for first-access updates on when registration officially opens to secure your seat!

"I loved every single week! Very informative, learned a lot of new terms, ideas, and skills. Learning from other tribes on how they handle their caseloads, tribal codes. From week 1 to the final week, I've learned that we serve our communities in a really good way, we can help our people by giving them guidance through the justice systems."

NCJTC Impact

NCJTC AMBER Alert Team in American Samoa

AMBER Program Staff meet with Congresswoman Aumua Amata Coleman Radewagen, and other officials, dignitaries, law enforcement and child protection advocates of American Samoa.

Our Annual All-Staff Meeting

In October, 70+ NCJTC team members gathered together in Portsmouth, NH for a week of professional development, brainstorming, learning and collaboration. We firmly believe the stronger the foundation of our team, the more impact we can have with our customers and within the communities they serve.

Our team returned from our All-Staff meeting energized and committed to innovation, service and relationship-building - both internally and externally.. We are ready to finish out 2024 strong, and are excited to continue to elevate YOUR experience in 2025 and beyond.

Go behind-the-scenes at our NCJTC all-staff meeting!
